

THE SHORE PORTERS' SOCIETY GUIDE TO OVERSEAS REMOVAL INSURANCE

We can provide insurance in transit for your consignment of goods from your present home or place of storage to your new home or, to a storage facility and, extend the cover whilst in store if requested in writing.

Your household goods should be insured for their full replacement value in the country of destination, and should include transport and packing charges to cover costs of replacement goods in the event of a claim. (Please bear in mind repairs as well as replacement may be higher at your destination.). Failure to do so will result in claims being reduced proportionately.

Please also specify and insert values for any items / sets over £500.00.

1] EXCESS

The cover is subject to an excess of 1% of the total insured value subject to a maximum of £200.00 and a minimum of £50.00 on each and every claim.

2] PAIRS AND SETS

If an item consists of articles in a pair or set, the Insurers will not pay more than the proportionate value of any particular part or parts which are lost or damaged. The policy does not recognise any special value which the article or articles may have as a part of a pair or set.

3] AVERAGE CLAUSE / UNDER INSURANCE

If the value insured is less than the actual value of the goods and there is a claim, the payment will be reduced in the same proportion as the insured value bears to the actual value.

4] DEPRECIATION

The Insurers will pay for the reasonable cost of repair but, will not pay for any depreciation.

5] REPLACEMENT

If you make a claim for partial loss arising from loss of or damage to any part of an insured item consisting of several parts, the Insurers will only pay for the cost of replacing the lost or damaged part taking into account the age of the item.

6] CLAUSES

Institute Cargo Clauses (A)

Institute War Clauses (Cargo)

Institute Strikes Clauses (Cargo)

7] OWNER PACKED GOODS

Excluding breakages, scratching, denting, chipping etc including trunks, suitcases and similar items. Also excluding claims for missing items unless a list showing individual values is supplied before transit begins.

The value of the frames on pictures and mirrors shall not exceed 25% of the insured value unless specifically declared as a separate item on the proposal form.

The insurance is only in force while the goods are in the care of The Shore Porters' Society or their appointed sub-contractors.

The Insurers retain the option to repair, replace or pay an amount for damage or loss. This will also apply if the item is part of a pair or set. In the event of replacement or payment the salvage becomes the property of the Insurers if they so wish.

All claims must be notified to The Settling Agents in writing within 7 days of delivery, whether the goods are unpacked or not. This time limit is essential to the contract.
